Dear Mr. McMilion:

I am the Commission's designated FOIA officer, and I have received your written FOIA request today. The specific documents addressing Duke Energy Carolinas' AMI Opt-Out Rider are available for public viewing, downloading, and printing at <https://dms.psc.sc.gov/Web/Dockets/Detail/116091>. I believe that this link to those documents should satisfy your document request.

You have also asked a number of legal questions requiring interpretations of certain Commission Regulations which I am not permitted to answer, as answering your legal questions would constitute legal advice. If you need advice as to the applicability and effects of laws and regulations to your situation, you should retain private counsel. As a lawyer employed by the Commission, I can provide legal advice only to the Commission.

Finally, I would advise you that in addition to being the Commission's FOIA officer, I am also the designated Hearing Examiner in the complaint docket you commenced on June 19, 2019, Docket No. 2019-230-E. It is unlawful for me to have any ex parte communications with you about any matters pertaining in any way to your docket pending before me. Accordingly, I am providing a copy of your document request and this response to Mr. Ellerbe and Mr. Wellborn, who have entered their appearances on behalf of the Company.

With kind regards, I am

B. Randall Dong
